1. [redacted] ADVISED by Messrs. [redacted] STAT and [redacted] DD/I, that Agency review of the Senate Aeronautical and Space Sciences Committee's draft paper on Soviet space capabilities, which had been prepared by the Library of Congress, has been completed and that it would be well if some of our people could meet with the Committee staff to go over our comments. Meeting will be arranged for Monday, 5 February, with Committee staff representatives.

2. [redacted] Received a request from Elizabeth Bond, in the office of Senator A. Willis Robertson (D., Va.), for one [redacted] (phonetic), copies of "CIA Studies on the Russian Economy" and "Teaching of Economics in the Soviet Union."
We will look into this and advise.

3. [redacted] ADVISED Paul Couplding, in the office of Senator Claiborne Pell (D., R.I.), in response to Mr. Couplding's query, that the Agency has no record of [redacted] [redacted] whose address is indicated to be Headquarters Building, U. S. Army Garrison, A. P. O. 11, United States Forces. If Mr. Couplding has further question on the matter, he will call us.

STAT

4. [redacted] ADVISED James Kendall, Chief Counsel, Senate Subcommittee on Preparedness Investigation, that the Agency had studied with interest the English-Russian Military Dictionary which he called to our attention. Mr. Kendall indicated that he had had a particular point in mind in bringing this matter to our attention and would call us later on the subject.
